Stop Arguing Politics in Church. Colonel Jack Chinn who was in Lexington Monday for the meeting of the State Racing Commission discussed at some length recent criticisms of the saloon element that churches and other houses of worship were being used from time to time to propagate the political fight at present being waged to make Kentucky a "dry" State. Colonel Chinn notes the criticism with earnest purposes and argees with the quarters this year for all kinds of contention that no church should be presents, such as handsome pictures, used as a place for political propaganda gift books, toys, dolls, games puzzles, by either side, as the advocates of Christmas cards, seats, novelties of saloons or against them. He regards every description. Be sure and call on the matter purely political and to this us before selecting your gifts. end he will introduce hill in the next General Assembly making it a misdemeanor even to discuss politics in a house of cublic worship. Colonel Chinn also believes that public school houses, when actually not in use for class work should be rendered available by statutory enactment for debates and public discussions of all kinds by leaders of thought in the various committees He believes in the old-fashion debating society and prospective measure is meant in little sense to stimulate a revival no little sense to stimulate a revival of that interesting custom in Ken-

The winner of the double grand prize at the poultry show in the Colliseum, at St. Louis, Mo., is a white Wyandote cockerel, owned by W. E. Johnson & Son, of Lexington, Ky. One of the two prizes won by the Lexington rooster is a silver cup offered for the whitest bird in the show, the other being a gold cup offered for the best male bird in the show.

oster's victory cannot be realized without bearing in mind that the total number of fowls entered the show was more than 5,000. Johnson left St. Louis before the awards were made.

Another exhibitor announced the intention of offering Johnson $1,000 for this prize winning bird. The bird weighs eight and one-half pounds and by this offer would be worth $117 a

PARIS BOOK STORE.

There is no action of your daily life of greater importance than to see that your bowels move. They should move at least once a day naturally, and by that is meant without any help. If they do not move at least once a day you can consider yourself constipated and it is time you did someday you can consider yourself constipated and it is time you did something about it.

You will be glad to know there is a way out of the difficulty. Lemuel Landerdale, an old soldier at Quincy, Ill., Elmer McMillan, of Speed, Mo., Mrs. Monahan, of Stonewall, Miss., and many others were as you are now. But one day they awoke to the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin was curing their friends, so they bought it too and it cured them. Today they are loud in praise of it.

What Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin did for them it should do for you. Surely your constipation is no worse than theirs, one of whom had it since '61. It only remains for you to realize that salts are of but temporary good, and what you want is a permanent cure; that purgative tablets, cathartic pills and such violent things make a great show of doing something, but do nothing that is lasting. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientific preparation, a laxative-tonic, a mild syrupy liquid that contains ingredients that not only cure the constipation, but tone the intestinal muscles so that they learn again to work without help. A bottle can be bought of any druggist for the small price of 50 cents, and there is a dollar size for families who have already found out its wonderful value in stomach, liver and bowel troubles, in old or young.

Send your name and address to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you so that you can test it before buying.

If there is anything about your aliment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldz., Monticello, Ill.
